

Causemopolitan

6 Signs You Suffer
from Depression

New Deals
Buyers Beware!

Beauty Tips
Foundation of Depression

The London Report
What's In What's Out

In Style
Eleanor Roosevelt

Februáry 1930s
One Dollar Per Copy

Causemopolitan Beauty Tips

The Foundation of the Great Depression

by, Alana London

Are you trying to create that perfect look? It all begins with a flawless foundation. Here are three quick tips to help you achieve your goal.

Tip #1: Use concealer! Concealer is the key to keeping those unsightly blemishes hidden from view. The problem with concealer is that the best product is usually the most expensive. There exists a large gap between rich and poor concealer. Your foundation depends on a good concealer, so get some! If you don't have enough money, thank the banks for consumer credit!

Tip #2: Bank on your structure or practice for applying concealer! There is no regulation for putting on your make-up, so do it any way you please!

Tip #3: After applying the concealer, if you speculate it is bad, panic! Make a run to the bank, and then purchase some new concealer.

I'm glad you survived the crash course in Causemetics and hope you put stock in my tips. The Europeans want these trade secrets, but ironically, they won't trade for them. Guess the secrets will continue to help our nation be stricken with beauty.

The London Report

by, Alana London

IN	OUT

F.D.R.	Herbert Hoover
Giving New Deals (Social Security, SEC, FDIC, TVA, FHA)	Giving Tax Breaks to Businesses and the Rich
Fighting Depression	Running from Depression

6 Signs You Suffer from G.D.E. (Great Depression Era)

by, Alana London

You may suffer from Great Depression Era if...

- Your exercise includes a run on the bank.
- Your boss gives you time off you didn't request.
- A lack of funds has inspired your continuous dedication to flapper fashion.
- Your home décor includes newspaper blankets and shelters of cardboard and wood.
- You develop a Robin Hood complex. (You decide to steal from the rich to give to the poor.)
- You sport the windblown look as a result of the Dust Bowl.

New Deals! Buyers Beware!

There is nothing I enjoy more than a New Deal, but in this economy, buyers beware! There are several challenges that go along with bargain shopping.

1. Make sure the deal you're getting is legit. You wouldn't want to become involved with something unconstitutional, would you?
2. Be aware that the person providing the deal possesses the power.
3. Remember that free ain't free. If you're getting a deal, it means someone else is racking up the debt.

Surpass these challenges and you can enjoy the splendor of New Deals as satisfying as a bowl of "Alphabet Soup."
And who knows?
Maybe the New Deals you have found will inspire a greater society.

by, Alana London

In Style

Starring our First Lady
Depressionista

Eleanor Roosevelt

She loves New Deals and wants everyone to have equal access to them.

by, Alana London

Step Aside Smoking Jackets...
This Woman has a Blazer!

Eleanor always has the "write" stuff when it comes to sophistication. "My Day" brightens just by looking at her.

A Civil Woman

Posing in perfection, Eleanor demonstrates that black and white work well together. Color is not a concern, when the fabric is the same.

On a Plane and Anything But...

Eleanor is able to travel in this tasteful, yet frugal ensemble. The hat compliments her mother-like demeanor as she makes personal appearances to workers to offer support.

